Note: If the space provided under any article or item on this form is insufficient, additions shall be set forth on one side only of separate 8 1/2 x 11 sheets of paper with a left margin of at least 1 inch. Additions to more than one article may be made on a single sheet so long as each article requiring each addition is clearly indicated.

ARTICLE III

A corporation may have one or more classes of members. If it does, the designation of such classes, the manner of election or appointments, the duration of membership and the qualification and rights, including voting rights, of the members of each class, may be set forth in the by-laws of the corporation or may be set forth below:

The membership of the corporation, if any, shall be as set forth in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV

Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or members, or of any class of members, are as follows:

See Continuation Pages IV(A) - IV(D)

ARTICLE V

The by-laws of the corporation have been duly adopted and the initial directors, president, treasurer and clerk or other presiding, financial or recording officers, whose names are set out on the following page, have been duly elected.

If there are no provisions, state "None".*

Note: The preceding four (4) articles are considered to be permanent and may only be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.

CONTINUATION PAGE IV(A)

Subject to the limitations set forth below, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(1) the powers specified in Massachusetts General Laws c. 180; (2) the powers set forth in Massachusetts General Laws c. 156B, §9 (a) through (k), §9(o) and §9(p); (3) the power to pay pensions and to establish and carry out pension, savings, thrift and other retirement and benefit plans, trusts and provisions for any or all of its directors, officers and employees; and (4) the power to be a partner with one or more other organizations in any enterprise which carries out the purposes on which the Corporation's tax-exempt status is based.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities that are (i) inconsistent with Massachusetts General Laws c. 180; or (ii) not permitted to be carried on (x) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (y) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual, and no member, director, officer or employee of the Corporation shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit of any kind therefrom except reasonable compensation for services in effecting one or more of the Corporation's purposes.

(c) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent permitted by §501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(d) Persons shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to participants in the Corporation, its programs and activities without regard to race, sex, age, disability, veteran status or sexual orientation, and the Corporation shall not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, disability, veteran status or sexual orientation in administering its policies and programs.

(e) In the event of any liquidation (whether voluntary, involuntary, or by operation of law), the property or assets of the Corporation remaining after providing for the payment of its debts and obligations shall, except as may be otherwise required or prohibited by law, be distributed pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws c. 180, §11A to the Electronic Frontier Foundation, Inc., provided that it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to one or more other such tax-exempt organizations with similar purposes as that of the Corporation.

(f) At any time that the Corporation is a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code:

(i) The Directors shall make distributions for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The Directors shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code; nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code; nor make any investments in such manner as to incur tax liability under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code; nor make any taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) Meetings of the members may be held anywhere within or without the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in accordance with applicable laws.

(h) No director or officer of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director or officer of the Corporation (i) for any breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the Corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit. No amendment, modification or repeal of this paragraph, directly or by adoption of an inconsistent provision of these Articles, shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director or officer of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.

(i) If the Corporation has members, (i) the by-laws may provide that the Directors may make, amend or repeal the by-laws, in whole or in part, except with respect to
